

LIFE with Coffee Ribbon Cutting Celebration

The LIFE with Coffee shop provides the Project LIFE interns with the opportunity to experience a true customer service and interaction to learn practical skills they can use for employment in the future such as food service, stocking and inventory ...and the coffee is EXCELLENT!

Opening the shop also provided the opportunity for us to continue collaborating with Nick Simmer. His "Larry Life" character and Butler Tech friends are displayed in the new sign created for the shop.

